Drowns In Hoodlum Lake

Walter L. Allison, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Allison of 3813 So. 15th St., was drowned shortly after 12:30 p. m. Saturday while swimming in Hoodlum lake, favorite swimming hole and skating pond of children in the Franklin playfield vicinity.

According to the story told police by four small boys, the Allison boy dove off a raft in the lake and didn't come up. The lake is some distance from the Franklin playfield at 12th St. and Puget Sound Ave. and some time elapsed before police headquarters received a call to the lake at 12:48 p. m.

Officers Evan Davies and Bernie Fromelt were dispatched to the scene in a prowl car with a resuscitator. They were followed immediately by a police ambulance. Officer Davies reported:

Body Found

"On arrival (at the lake), three or four children were standing around and informed us that a boy was in the lake. The children gave the approximate location and I discarded my clothes and dove in. After about 10 minutes I hit something and, with the aid of Dan Inveen, Franklin playfield director, we duck-dived and brought the body to the surface.

"We took him to the shore where Officers Kenny Jack, Dan Gates, Bob Gibbs, B. Hickey and Fromelt were standing by. I started giving the boy artificial respiration, being relieved by Officer Gibbs while the resuscitator was being readied for action . . . The boy was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, the resuscitator being in operation all the way."

All efforts to restore life at the hospital failed, and the boy was declared dead on arrival by physicians there.

The four boy witnesses to the tragedy, according to police, are Bob Huber, 11, of 1511 So. Adams St., Tom Salovis, 11, of 609 So. 14th St., Mike Delin, of 1431 So. Durango St. and Ray Carlson, 12, of 1408 So. Lawrence St.

Jason Lee Pupil

Young Allison, born in Chehalis, was a student of Jason Lee junior high school.

Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, William H., Daniel A. and Carroll S.; four sisters, Betty Marie, Jane Elizabeth, June L., and Irene D.; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allison and Mrs. Elizabeth Eskew, all of Tacoma.

The C. C. Mellinger company will announce the services.
